Scout Leader Faced Charges

HAMILTON, N.Y. — The leader of a Scout troop here appeared in Hamilton County Municipal Court today on two counts each of sexual assault and sexual imposition. The charges were filed by the Hamilton County District Attorney.

The leader, 45, is a Silver Lake, N.Y. resident who was charged with having sexual contact with three members of the Scout group, including a young boy, said Police Officer [redacted].

The same charges were filed under a section of Ohio law that defines sexual contact with a child as less than 15 years of age.

The charges are the alleged result of a complaint filed by a Scoutmaster in the Hamilton County District Attorney's office.

The charges were filed at 200 Court Street in Hamilton, N.Y. The charges were filed by the Hamilton County District Attorney.

Cub Scout leader charged in rapes

A Springfield Township Cub Scout leader was in court this morning on charges that he raped and sexually assaulted young boys in his community.

Robert W. Cooke, 45, of 10685 Silverbrook Drive, was bound over to the Hamilton County grand jury on two charges of rape and two charges of gross sexual imposition.

Cooke is a staff supervisor for Cincinnati Bell and heads a church-affiliated scout troop. Timothy Hogan, senior assistant prosecutor for the City of Cincinnati, said the offenses involved three 8-year-old Cub Scouts and a 15-year-old boy.

Hogan told Municipal Court Judge Jack Rosen that the rapes occurred July 13 and Aug. 11. The gross sexual impositions, Hogan said, occurred Sept. 15 and Oct. 7.

Each offense occurred in Cooke's home, garage or in a wooded area nearby, Hogan said.

Rosen denied Hogan's request for a high bond and ordered Cooke held in lieu of $4,000, $1,000 for each offense. Hogan asked for a higher bond because of "a serious sanity issue."

Springfield Township Police Officer Robert C. Foltz testified that an investigation began Oct. 6 after the parents of some of the children in Cooke's troop filed complaints. Foltz said that investigation is continuing.

Hogan, who is employed by the City of Cincinnati, is prosecuting the Springfield Township cases because he is assigned to the county-wide Major Offenders Program.
